Changhua Branch Warms Hearts and Bellies with Year-End Charity Meals for the Elderly

The Changhua Branch, Administrative Enforcement Agency, Ministry of Justice (hereinafter “Changhua Branch”), led by Branch Chief Kuo, collaborated with the Huashan Foundation’s Changhua Community Love Angel Station to deliver festive meals to underprivileged elderly residents today (January 30). The residents also received additional cash gift from the charity club of the Changhua Branch. In the midst of the cold spells in recent days, Huashan Foundation and Changhua Branch expects to bring warmth to the elderlies needing care in the community through heart-warming deeds.

On October 3, 2022, during the Guashan Court Auction Market by the Changhua Branch, they also organized a special “love and contentment charity sale section” where the staff donated good-quality items for auction, with all the proceeds to be contributed to elderly care. The event, warmly supported by the community, raised over NT$10,000. These funds were given to the Huashan Foundation to help provide additional festive meals for the elderly this Lunar New Year, ensuring they have a hearty celebration. Today, the meals purchased by the Huashan Foundation, along with the funds raised by the Changhua Division, were personally delivered to the homes of the elderly. During these visits, the foundation's staff also performed health checks, measuring blood pressure and weight, offering a holistic approach to elder care. The visits also best demonstrated the care by the Changhua Branch.

The Changhua Branch upholds the philosophy of "Enforcement with Love, Justice Unhindered". Beyond its regular duties of seizing and auctioning items to settle debts, the Branch actively engages in social welfare activities, supporting vulnerable citizens through difficult times and integrating community efforts to provide timely aid. Furthermore, the Branch combines additional social strengths to provide prompt assistance to the vulnerable obligors. Looking ahead, the Changhua Branch will continue to embody the spirit of justice and care, innovation and legacy, maintaining its commitment to assisting the community's vulnerable members and upholding the core values of an enforcement agency.
