Guashan Court Auction Bazaar

Invites You to Engage in Charity in this “Contributing Love and Sending Warmth” Graduation Season

The Changhua Branch of the Administrative Enforcement Agency, Ministry of Justice, is set to host another edition of the “Guashan Court Auction Bazaar-Contributing Love and Sending Warmth” joint auction and sale of movable properties on Tuesday, July 2, 2024. The event will take place from 9:30 AM at the parking lot of Changhua Branch's Nantou Office of Administrative Enforcement Officer (No. 1-30, Zhongzheng Rd., Nantou City). The auction for movable properties featuring diverse range of items for sale will begin at 10:00 AM.. Simultaneously, tax education promotions, promotion of services from the Nantou County Veterans Service Office and Nantou County Police Department, and charitable organizations like the Nantou County Little Angels Association selling self-produced cleaning products, herbal tea, rice noodles, hand-made soaps, and other daily necessities will take place in the same session; in the afternoon at 3:00 PM, the auction for real estate will be held in the auction room on the 4th floor of the Changhua Branch office.

The “Guashan Court Auction Bazaar” was initiated to provide a sales platform for businesses facing operational difficulties, allowing them to sell seized items to offset their tax debts (fees in arrears), thereby demonstrating the enforcement agency's warmth and care through flexible measures. The Guashan Court Auction Bazaar hosted its first event at the Branch’s Nantou office on March 5, 2024, received enthusiastic responses. The upcoming event on July 2 promises a diverse selection of nearly a hundred items, including the highly sought-after Sun-Link-Sea tea, beverages, food, various sports equipment and protective gear, stationery, clothing, daily necessities, and hardware, available for purchase by the public. With the event coincides with the students' graduation season, these seized goods may “graduate” from seizure in this event and find new homes. As extras, auction items include four vehicles, investments in a Grade A general construction company, and exquisite wooden carvings: dragon and turtle statues carved out from red rosewood and ebony, a red rosewood Guan Yu statue, and a yellow cypress treasure basin (35*45cm=20.4 cai [cubic feet]). These limited-edition items are highly valuable and not to be missed!

The afternoon session at the Branch’s Changhua office will feature a real estate auction in the 4th-floor auction room. The auction will include lands in various locations within Changhua County, such as townships and cities in Changhua including Fenyuan, Tianwei, Xihu, Yuanlin, Puyan, Pitou, Ershui, and Tianzhong, as well as lands in Nantou County at townships of Caotun, Ren'ai, and Mingjian. Ones interested may view photos, catalogs, and promotional videos of the auction items on the Changhua Branch’s official website or Facebook page. Detailed information about the auctioned vehicles and wooden carvings can also be found on the website's auction announcements.
